

Title I

All ESEA Programs

For any district receiving Title I funds (even if consorting), the district shall notify the parents of each student attending any school that the parents may request, and the district will provide to the parents on request, in a timely manner, information regarding the professional qualifications of the student's teacher (s).