

PEP RALLIES

Pep rallies may be held for any sports event; however, no more than one per sport season should be scheduled during regular school hours, unless conditions warrant administrative approval.

All students are encouraged to take an active part in the rallies by yelling with the cheerleaders. Pep rallies will not be held if there is not a positive contribution on the part of the student body.